

LING4U

PREPOSITIONS

lesson 4

PREPOSITION

is a word that shows the relationship between a noun (or pronoun) and other parts of a sentence. Prepositions are usually followed by a noun or pronoun (called the object of the preposition).

TYPES OF PREPOSITIONS

Prepositions of Place/Location

Examples:

At: She is at the park.

In: The keys are in the bag.

On: The book is on the table.

Under: The shoes are under the bed.

Prepositions of Time

Examples:

At: The meeting is at 10 AM.

On: He was born on Monday.

In: We'll visit them in December.

By: The homework must be done by Friday.

Prepositions of Direction/Movement

Used to show where something is going.

Examples:

To: She's going to the store.

Into: He walked into the room.

Onto: The cat jumped onto the roof.

Toward: They ran toward the finish line.

Prepositions of Manner, Cause, or Purpose

Used to explain how, why, or for what purpose something happens.

Examples:

With: He painted the picture with a brush.

About: We are talking about the trip.

Because of: The event was canceled because of rain.

COMMON PREPOSITIONS

Type	Examples
Place	at, in, on, under, over, between
Time	at, on, in, by, during, after, before
Direction	to, into, onto, toward, across, along
Cause/Purpose	because of, due to, for, with
Manner/Means	with, by, like, about, as

THANK YOU